Dear Pastor and praying friends,

“We...were in bondage” (Gal. 4:3)

The New Testament uses very vivid images to describe the state of humanity without Christ. Mankind is lost, blind, and dead in sin. Another aspect of the plight of man is readily seen here in Cambodia: man is in bondage to the forces of darkness. Cambodians regularly burn incense and make offerings to spiritual beings with the hope of obtaining favor and power from these forces. Many also live in fear of what these beings will do in retaliation if they stop honoring them and giving them offerings. Cambodians are able to recognize this spiritual bondage more readily than us secular Americans. Thank God that we are able to tell these dear Khmer people that God loves them and wants to redeem them from their bondage! Please pray that God would give us discernment and wisdom as we continue to plant gospel seeds.

Ministry Update

We thank God for each child who comes to the Sunday Bible Clubs. Please pray especially for the young teens who attend faithfully: Van-ak, Srey-neet, and Srey-koo'ich. Also pray for Da-ronge, a 12-year-old boy who began coming during our VBS this past summer. We are methodically laying a biblical foundation through these Bible Clubs that we pray will provide a solid foundation for an authentic faith in Jesus Christ.

Thank you for praying for Sok Van-ak, a middle-aged contractor. He has met with Randy for several salvation Bible studies recently and has been very attentive and engaged. Please pray that he would continue seeking and that he would be saved. Also, please keep praying for Two-un, another middle-aged man who has met with Randy for a Bible study. Pray specifically that his work would not hinder him from continuing with the salvation Bible study.

Thank you for your prayers and support!
